

Government Students: Requirements Remaining

Name: _____

House: _____

According to our records, and assuming successful completion of all courses, you have fulfilled the following Government Department requirements:

1. Sophomore Tutorial: _____

2. Field Requirements:

(one half course in each of the four sub-fields of political science. These need not be introductory courses.)

*Theory: _____

Comparative: _____

American: _____

International Relations: _____

*Note: Only courses in the section of the catalog called "Political Thought and Its History" count for Theory credit. Courses in the section called "Political Methodology and Formal Theory" do NOT count for Theory credit (but do count for elective credit).

3. Government Electives: (honors require two; non-honors require three)

_____

4. Additional Government Courses or Related Fields:

(both honors and non honors require three)

(may be drawn from Economics, Sociology, Philosophy, History, Languages, or Quantitative/Statistics)

_____

5. Junior Seminar (Gov 98) _____

6. Senior Thesis (Gov 99) _____

In order to graduate, you must complete the following Government Department requirements:

Honors: _____
(need 13 half-courses)

Non-Honors: _____
(need 11 half-courses)

Note: This information is intended to help you plan your schedule. It is, however, your responsibility to make sure that you have met all requirements. If this is inaccurate in any way, please notify the Undergraduate Program Office immediately as we are not obligated to exempt you from any unmet requirements on the basis of this checksheet.

If you have questions, please contact the Undergraduate Program Office at 495-3249